

Support Dietetics Students through the FNCE 2009 Student Stipend Program!

By awarding $100 stipends to students attending the Food and Nutrition Conference and Expo, the Student Stipend Program provides a successful way to get dietetics students engaged in the dietetics profession through networking and learning opportunities.

- Based on the funds collected, the Student Stipend Challenge awards dietetics students, who are ADA members and registered for FNCE a $100 stipend towards their FNCE expenses.
- Donors who make a minimum $100 contribution will be matched with a specific student which will provide an opportunity to introduce your DPG, Affiliate, or organization to future food and nutrition professionals.
- Donations of $100 or more made by August 1st will be acknowledged in the FNCE Program Book.
- Donations of any amount are welcomed and encouraged.
